

SUMMER 2015

Learn French this summer at the Georgetown University French Language Institute Department of French, named a Centre d'Excellence by the France Embassy.

Benefit from small classes and enhance your knowledge of French Language and Francophone cultures in a relaxed environment and in a unique combination of classroom learning and outdoor cultural activities.

These activities may include:

- Weekly gathering of crêpes & coffee, a fun and traditional French snack, while practicing one's language skills with a mix of faculty and students
- Participating in entertainment-based activities such as seeing French films, eating at local French restaurants, and playing traditional French games (such as boules)
- Visiting local museums and embassies with francophone exhibits
- Learning from real-time and on-demand current media resources as well as the latest classroom language learning technology in the CNDLS Language Lab

Language Course Offerings range from Introductory French (FREN 001, FREN 002) to Intermediate French (FREN 021, FREN 022) in the non-intensive format.
